

Europe's Premier Event for Recreational Flying

www.flyingforfun.net

Schools' Day

Friday 1st July

Kemble Airfield

Nr. Cirencester,
Gloucs/Wilts border

includes:-

- ★ Escorted tour of visiting aircraft and displays
- ★ Bristol Aero Collection museum
- ★ Curriculum-orientated activities for all levels and ages
- ★ FREE entry for under 16s and School Groups

Flying for Fun is a celebration of light aircraft and the amateur builders and pilots who fly just for their love of aviation and the freedom of the skies. The event is the biggest in Europe, expected to attract up to 2,000 visiting aircraft, including hundreds of home-built and vintage types. Throughout the weekend, there will be demonstrations, forums, inter-active zones and, of course, aircraft flying and on static display.

The Schools' Day on Friday offers schools a unique opportunity for a fascinating and an enjoyable visit, with specially-arranged tours of the site and visiting aircraft, as well as support and additional activities related to topics from the National Curriculum.

These could include an introduction to:-

- lightweight structures
- materials such as wood, metals, fabrics, plastics, composites
- aircraft manufacturing processes
- local aviation history
- meteorology and weather forecasting
- navigation principles
- aircraft controls, and principles of flight
- flight simulation and flying training
- aero-engine technology

There will also be some special activities for younger visitors including :-

- appreciation of aircraft shapes
- comparing material properties
- modelling skills and making model aircraft
- picture competition

We hope you will consider a visit with a group from your school, and we will do everything we can to ensure your pupils and students have a very enjoyable and educational day. Help with costs of transport may be available.

Jabiru J400 - Australian designed 4-seater composite kit-plane
